Phoenix, AZ (PRWeb) August 20, 2008 -- The Rainmaker Institute has just launched the first print magazine dedicated to law firm marketing, Targeted towards small law firms and solo practitioners', The Rainmaker Advisor provides the latest marketing strategies, best practices, tips and advice in marketing for small law firms.

"In having coached, trained and mentored more than 6,000 attorneys over the past several years one thing is clear: attorneys want to grow their practices but don't have the knowledge or the time to do it," said Stephen Fairly, CEO of The Rainmaker Institute and best-selling author. "That's why we have created The Rainmaker Advisor. This is the very first national print magazine entirely dedicated to giving law firms and solo practitioners practical solutions, proven strategies and current marketing tools that will help them build million dollar practices while creating a practice that supports their lifestyle."

Through articles and case studies written exclusively for The Rainmaker Advisor, leading marketing experts and top rainmaker attorneys will share their best practices, such as cutting-edge strategies for building law firms; practical steps for creating a law firm marketing plan and how to consistently generate more and better qualified referrals.

To promote the magazine, for a limited time, The Rainmaker Institute is offering a free 30-day trial subscription with bonus gifts. For more information or to claim a free subscription and over $1200 in exclusive bonus gifts, go to: www.TheRainmakerAdvisor.com
